

Love for Nonprofits

NorCAN is embarking on the Love and Know Campaign to increase community understanding of and compassion for the role of nonprofits in our communities, and to help people see the heart, dedication, and talent of the incredible folks working and volunteering in our community nonprofits. The stories and testimonials shared here are a sampling of responses we received to the Nonprofit Love Survey where folks from across the region shared why they're passionate about their work, their proudest moments, what they give to their organizations and what the secret sauce is that makes their organizations so great.

Our communities are healthier, more hopeful and heart-oriented places because of nonprofits.

We are proud to share these stories with you.
